'I Ain't Afraid of No Ghosts!' - The UWM Post Paranormal Project to Haunt Milwaukee
'The truth is out there....' And the UWM Post is going to find it.

(Milwaukee, WI) - The UWM Post Paranormal Project will investigate all the folklore, urban legends, ghost stories and conspiracies of Wisconsin.

Join the project's spooky investigation, which includes paranormal science, creative works and academic studies from UWM campus and the greater Milwaukee area.

As part of the project, you'll find out more about the unexplained while connecting with other people who share your paranormal interests. Whether you're a skeptic, believer or in-between, this investigation is open to all, and we look forward to welcoming you.

"The UWM Post attended a paranormal conference in 2025, and found these strange or macabre topics worthy of serious investigation. We are bringing that to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee campus and greater community," said the UWM Post's Multimedia Editor Charlie Skrade.

Have a ghost story to share, maybe even some photos or video proof? The UWM Post is curating all kinds of research and academic-based work, across all mediums, revolving around the weird in Wisconsin.

The UWM Post is also searching for creative writing, films, performance art and paranormal-inspired artwork of any kind to publish as part of the project.

Submit your entries to this form: <https://forms.gle/NxJCZwTx5CQjkcg6>, and send any inquiries to the UWM Post email (officialuwmpost@gmail.com).

The UWM Post is a student newspaper independently run by the students of UW-Milwaukee, bringing original news, arts and culture, sports reporting and more to the UWM campus and greater Milwaukee area.
