

I am you

You are me

Across space and time

We are parallels of our shared ancestry

Connected forever

We mirror each other

I see myself in you when I look into yours eyes and the depth of your soul

You see yourself in me when my touch feels like our hearts are connected to the same rhythm

Familiar

Hereditary

Home

Fundamental

Alpha and Omega

We are the creators and destroyers of past, present and future nations

Across millennia

I'm no longer alone
